

DEPARTMENT OF THE NAVY

BOARD FOR CORRECTION OF NAVAL RECORDS
2 NAVY ANNEX
WASHINGTON DC 20370-5100

CRS

Docket No: 5297-00 4 January 2001

This is in reference to your application for correction of your naval record pursuant to the provisions of Title 10, United States Code, Section 1552.

A three-member panel of the Board for Correction of Naval Records, sitting in executive session, considered your application on 3 January 2001. Your allegations of error and injustice were reviewed in accordance with administrative regulations and procedures applicable to the proceedings of this Board. Documentary material considered by the Board consisted of your application, together with all material submitted in support thereof, your naval record and applicable statutes, regulations and policies.

After careful and conscientious consideration of the entire record, the Board found that the evidence submitted was insufficient to establish the existence of probable material error or injustice.

The Board found that you enlisted in the Navy on 24 April 1981 at age 18. The record reflects that on 24 September 1982 you received nonjudicial punishment for an unauthorized absence of a day and failure to obey a lawful order on two occasions.

On 16 March 1983 the commanding officer recommended that you be separated with an honorable discharge by reason of misconduct due to minor disciplinary infractions in accordance with Project Upgrade. He stated that you had been counseled numerous times about your behavior, but had shown no improvement. When informed of the recommendation, you elected to waive your right to submit a statement in rebuttal to the proposed action. After review by the discharge authority, the recommendation for separation was approved and you were discharged with an honorable discharge by reason of misconduct on 1 April 1983. At that time you were assigned an RE-4 reenlistment code.

In its review of your application the Board carefully weighed all potentially mitigating factors, such as your youth and immaturity. However, the Board concluded that these factors were not sufficient to warrant a change in the reason for discharge. The Board considered your contention that the reason for discharge was improper, but noted that you submitted no evidence to support this contention. Applicable regulations require the assignment of an RE-4 reenlistment code when an individual is discharged by reason of misconduct. Since you have been treated no differently than others in your situation, the Board could not find an error or injustice in the assignment of your reenlistment code.

Accordingly, your application has been denied. The names and votes of the members of the panel will be furnished upon request.

It is regretted that the circumstances of your case are such that favorable action cannot be taken. You are entitled to have the Board reconsider its decision upon submission of new and material evidence or other matter not previously considered by the Board. In this regard, it is important to keep in mind that a presumption of regularity attaches to all official records. Consequently, when applying for a correction of an official naval record, the burden is on the applicant to demonstrate the existence of probable material error or injustice.

Sincerely,

W. DEAN PFEIFFER Executive Director
